2 MR. DURAND: Yes, sir.

3 * MR. ACKERMANN: Your Honor, it was my understanding
4 -- I got the impression from Your Honor we were going to just
5 admit the bench books and worry about it later.

6 THE COURT: Yes. And I don't think there's any --
7 from my discussions with Counsel at the pre-trial conference, I
8 was under the impression that the exhibits that were exchanged
9 were going to be introduced, without objection.

10 MR. ACKERMANN: Yes, we were not going to object to 11 authenticity.

12 THE COURT: So, if she's going to testify with 13 respect to one of the exhibits, go ahead, but just to go
14 through them and identify them, you know, --

15 MR. DURAND: Okay, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: -- it's at the end of a long day, and I
17 don't want to cut you short with testimony, but just 18 identifying exhibits and telling me what they are is not of 19 benefit.

20 THE WITNESS: The number coincide with the exhibits,
21 and you were at 31.
