

1 "But, did you compensate yourself out of the $200,000
2 for anything you did for Wilfred after the criminal problems
3 arose?"

4 And, your answer is: "Okay, Jeffrey, I'm paying his
5 criminal and I know that when I run out of money, the Bell
6 Family Trust is going to start paying for his criminal, because
7 whatever I don't spare him, the Trust is going to suffer."

8 MR. DURAND: What page is that, Jeff?

9 MR. ACKERMANN: I'm sorry, Allan. It's 184.

10 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

11 MR. ACKERMANN: And I actually have it highlighted,
12 if need be.

13 THE WITNESS: Well, at the on start of this, I didn't
14 know --

15 THE COURT: The question is: Do you remember the 16 testimony?

17 THE WITNESS: Yes, now that you read it, I'm
18 remembering it.

19 BY MR. ACKERMANN:

20 Q. And, at some point, that cash did run out, did it not?
21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And, in part, that cash ran out because of a circumstance
23 that involved your son, did it not?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. Could you explain what happened, vis-à-vis that cash and
