

1 A. Absolutely.

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. You can call Mr. Broussard's son. He was there.

4 Q. If Sue took your father out for supper, or paid his light
5 bill out of the Trust, in the hopes of keeping him from 6 revoking the Trust, do you have a big problem with her using
7 that little bit of Trust money for something like that?

8 A. Yes, I would, because that would be just not following the 9 rules of the Trust.

10 Q. But, I mean --

11 A. I think probably the thing would be, you know if you get
12 your money from the Trust, and you want to help your parents,
13 then you help them.

14 Q. But, you wouldn't have wanted any of the Trust money spent
15 on your father?

16 A. No. Nor my mother.

17 Q. Now, you testified when Mr. Ackermann asked you, when you
18 finally saw this 58 page invoice from Sue, that you were very
19 upset about it, is that right?

20 A. Uh-huh.

21 Q. You have to say yes, or no.

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And, as a result of that, you and some of your other
24 siblings authorized Mr. Marcantel to file a suit to undo that
25 transaction and stop Sue from doing anything with the property
