

that she took from the bank?

A I was getting enough money from my Social Security check to live on.

Q Okay. Now, when you appointed the trustee for the trust, did you talk with Mr. Friedman or with anybody about whether or not that trustee would be paid any money for doing what they have to do for the trust?

A No.

Q In your mind, what did you think, did you think Sue Bell was going to be paid for being the trustee or was she just doing it because she was your daughter?

A I didn't give no think to that.

Q What did you think Sue Bell was going to do? What did she have to do? What kind of work did she have to do when she became the trustee of your farm property? Did you think it was going to be a hard job?

A Well, I knew that it was going to be a job. I didn't know how hard it was going to be. Some of the children wanted a return every month of what she was doing and she said that she wasn't going to give them a return every month, that she was going to give them a year --
