

Q He's the attorney that made the trust; is that right?

A Yes.

Q And he's the one that told you to select the trustee that I asked you to have one trustee; is that right?

A Right.

Q Did he tell you that if you wanted, you could have had ten trustees?

A No, he didn't tell me that....

Q But he's the one that said one trustee is best?

A He told me that -- I wanted to put two trustees.

Q I wanted to put Susan and Ruby, and he said, "Mr. Bell, I've been doing that for 20 years."

A and he said, "Two trustees don't work."

Q And you're the one that selected Sue to be the trustee?

A Right.

Q That was your decision?

A Right. She was right there and I asked her to be the trustee.

Q Why did you go and make that trust in August of 1996?

A I don't think I understand.

Q Why did you make the trust?

A My lawyer advised me to liquidate my assets.
