

FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT - DKT 2001-6482
EXCERPTS COURT RULING JANUARY 28, 2002 -
WRONGFUL TRO DAMAGES RELEGATED TO FUTURE HEARING.

1 authority that you can appoint somebody
2 provisional trustee without any evidence.
3 There's nothing here to --

4 THE COURT: Well, based on what I heard
5 today -- Who did you have?

6 MR. MARCANTEL: His name is -- He's a
7 lawyer here in town, Thomas B. Brumbaugh.

8 THE COURT: All right. I know Tom.
9 I'm going to appoint him co-trustee, co- --
10 make him co-trustee with this lady.

11 MR. MARCANTEL: And will you order that
12 they make all trust --

13 THE COURT: Available.

14 MR. MARCANTEL: -- documents available
15 to him?

16 THE COURT: All documents available to
17 Mr. Brumbaugh.

18 MR. GAUTHIER: Your Honor, we ask the
19 Court to rule on our rule to terminate the 20 temporary restraining order so we --

21 THE COURT: All right. That's
22 terminated. I don't think I can -- I don't
23 think that's appropriate.

24 MR. GAUTHIER: And we would like to
25 defer the issue of damages to a future
26 hearing, Your Honor.

27 THE COURT: All right. So Tom
28 Brumbaugh is going to work with this --

29 (DISCUSSION HELD OFF THE RECORD)

30 THE COURT: We were arguing some
31 motions. We disposed of the dissolution of 32 the TRO and --
