A No.

Q Mr. Wilfred, we talked about the house and the one acre earlier. Do you remember that?

A Huh?

Q Remember we talked about your house and the one acre?

A (No response.)

Q Did you ever want to put that in the trust?

A I couldn't put that in the trust because the Federal attorney had told me that he was going to take the house, otherwise, my grandfather wanted me to take care of him 'til he died and he had give me -- I don't know how you call that in English... He had give me, when I bought the land, he held -- I don't know how you call that -- he had --

Q A usufruct?

A A usufruct for me to take care of him 'til he died, and that's what I wanted to do, but I couldn't do that because the Federal Government was going to take my house, and when I went to make the trust, I knew that the Federal attorney had told me that he was going to take the house and the land that it stand on with an alley that 26 feet wide that went to the public road and
