

1 she had taken, is that correct?

2 A. Well, yeah, but first what we did was just simply to ask
3 for an accounting. We had never been given one.

4 Q. Okay. And, you were given an accounting, were you not?

5 A. Well, we actually wanted to see copies of invoices, and
6 for some reason, I don't know why, she just didn't want to give
7 us the copies.

8 Q. What makes you think she didn't want to give you the 9 copies?

10 A. Because, we never got them.

11 Q. You never got them? You never have to this day seen the 12 accounting?

13 A. We've never gotten copies of the invoices for all the 14 expenses that were on the financial statement.

15 Q. Mr. Marcantel didn't tell you that he went to Stan
16 Gauthier's office and all of those documents were there?

17 A. They were there. Were the copies there?

18 Q. Well, was it your feeling that the Trust ought to pay to 19 have all of that copied and given to you all?

20 A. It wouldn't have mattered who would have paid for it.

21 Q. All right. You --

22 A. I think we had the right to see them.

23 Q. Oh, sure. And, were you under the impression that
24 Mr. Marcantel was denied the right to see those documents?

25 A. I don't know whether he was denied the right.

1 Q. He never told you?

2 A. Maybe he did.

3 Q. Okay. But, after you found out about the invoice, you and
4 some of your siblings authorized Mr. Marcantel to file the suit
5 that was filed shortly after that, to try to cancel that
6 transaction, right?

7 A. Cancel what transaction?

8 Q. The dation -- the transfer of the property to Sue.

~~9~~ 9 A. That's why we filed the suit?

10 Q. You did file a suit -- I mean, do you understand that you
11 filed a suit that requested that relief, and that asked for an
12 injunction against Sue to prevent her from doing anything with 13 the property?

~~14~~ 14 A. Well, it's my understanding that we filed a suit because 15 we wanted an accounting.

~~16~~ 16 Q. And, it's your understanding that that's all that was 17 requested?

~~18~~ 18 A. That's right.

19 Q. And, that it did not request an injunction against Sue to 20 prevent her from taking any action? You just don't know?

21 A. Well, why would she take action?

22 Q. My question is, do you understand that a suit was filed in
23 your name requesting that an injunction be placed on Sue
24 preventing her from doing anything with that property?

25 A. Yeah, I think I do remember that.
