

1 this, their suit was filed in contempt prior to any
2 investigation. Every time I pulled out something, which I
3 pulled out for an hour and a half, -- I had financials, I had
4 all the boxes there --

5 Q. My question is: Did anybody, prior to filing the suit to
6 cancel the dation, did anybody ever ask you if you had done
7 everything that was listed in there?

8 A. No.

9 Q. All right. What does that cause you to conclude about
10 what good it would have done to disclose this to your siblings,
11 prior to the dation?

12 A. It wouldn't have made a difference.

13 Q. And, why do you say that?

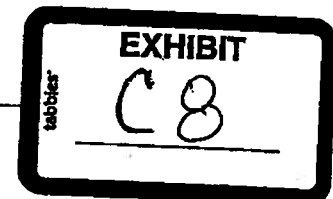

14 A. Well, I think their attitude is because, you know, I've 15 had the misfortune of being a sibling; that I wasn't entitled
16 to anything more than the next beneficiary.

17 Q. , All right. In that meeting with Mr. Marcantel, -- now,
18 you had previously furnished him with all the annual
19 accountings, is that correct? -- or Mr. Gauthier had.

20 A. I think Stan requested the financials from Joan through 21 the year of whatever she had prepared, which would have been 22 maybe 2000.

23 Q. And, had that been provided to Mr. Marcantel prior to the 24 meeting?

25 A. That was my understanding, yes.
