

This bankruptcy proceeding is close to being administered to closure. The adversary proceedings against Mary Susan Bell and her attorney Stan Gauthier have been concluded and all that remains is to resolve the objections to the claims and for the Trustee to propose an administration of the estate. Mover respectfully asks that this court fashion a sanction for Bell's violations that will have a serious chilling effect on her desire to continue to use the courts to advance positions that are now res judicata, have no relationship to the administration of the estate and only serve to injure the reputation of others through half-truths and unsubstantial allegations. No doubt Bell will consider going to another court to file the same types of action as have been filed with this court if she can find a lawyer to do so. She may do it pro se like she has when lawyers refuse to indulge her. No doubt Bell hoped that a new Bankruptcy Judge would consider her claims without the burden of having witnessed Bell's historic abuse of process with unfounded allegations. Mover asks that the court award a monetary fine of $10,000.00 against Bell and her counsel insolido, and issue an injunction against Bell filing any other proceedings in this court without first seeking leave of court to do so.

Respectfully submitted,
